1. Qualification profile

The Instrumental Studies comprehensively develop the musical and interpretation skills necessary for professional musicians and the technical abilities on the relevant instrument. In particular, the deepening of relevant musical knowledge, practical implementation of this knowledge in solo, chamber and orchestral repertoire, and consideration of artistic and music-reflecting aspects, enable musicians to become universally, practically qualified and expand their options.

Accordion

Bachelor's Programme:

The knowledge of solo, chamber music and orchestral repertoire acquired in the Bachelor's Programme equips graduates to meet individual professional requirements, preparing them for a wide range of work in a variety of fields.

Students become highly accomplished in performing on stage.

Master's Programme:

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic aspects as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Guitar

Bachelor's Programme:

The skills acquired in solo, chamber music and orchestral repertoire in the Bachelor's Programme equip graduates to deal creatively and independently with a wide range of musical styles. Students become highly accomplished in performing repertoire on stage.

Master's Programme:

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic aspects as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Instrumental Coaching

The Master's Programme Instrumental Coaching qualifies students to accompany instrumentalists on the piano at a high level. Working on the instrumental repertoire to be accompanied enables students to contribute to instrument-specific musical shaping.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Chamber Music for Guitar

Through the Master's Programme Chamber Music for Guitar, chamber musicians become highly qualified to meet the demands of interpretation and of playing the individual instruments. Particular skills include achieving balance between the instruments, ensemble playing techniques and conveying the musical intention through body language. In addition, the culture of discussion established during the study programme is helpful for developing a shared interpretation of musical works.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Chamber Music for Strings and Piano

Through the Master's Programme Chamber Music for Strings and Piano, chamber musicians become highly qualified to meet the demands of interpretation and of playing the individual instruments. Particular skills include achieving balance between the instruments and ensemble playing techniques. In addition, the culture of discussion established during the study programme is helpful for developing a shared interpretation of musical works.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Piano

Bachelor's Programme:

By attaining stylistic versatility and flexibility in solo, chamber music and orchestral repertoire, students achieve a high level of repertoire-oriented stage maturity and artistic presence.

Master's Programme:

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Piano Duo

Through the stylistic versatility and flexibility in piano duo repertoire attained in the Master's Programme Piano Duo, students achieve an extremely high level of repertoire-oriented stage maturity and artistic presence.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Piano – Vocal Accompaniment

The Master's Programme Piano-Vocal Accompaniment qualifies students to accompany singers on the piano at a high level. Working on vocal repertoire enables students to contribute to voice-specific musical shaping.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic phenomena as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Orchestral Instruments

Bass Tuba, Bassoon, Flute, Harp, French Horn, Clarinet, Double Bass, Oboe, Trombone, Saxophone, Percussion, Trumpet, Viola, Violin, Cello

Bachelor's Programme:

Through the study programme Orchestral Instruments, students acquire the ability to express themselves independently in interpretations of musical works of different styles at a high artistic level.

The compound specialist, technical and musical knowledge and ability, combined with the creative incorporation of their own artistic personality in orchestral and chamber music making, enables graduates to achieve success and fulfilment in their professional career (orchestral, chamber music, solo playing).

Master's Programme:

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic aspects as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Organ

Bachelor's Programme:

Through intensive work on organ repertoire (solo, chamber music, symphonic repertoire), the Bachelor's Programme Organ enables students to give concert performances with a high level of technical, stylistic and artistic skill.

Master's Programme:

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic aspects as part of the artistic or academic master's thesis, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

Performance Practice in Contemporary Music (PPCM)

Through practical experience and a comprehensive understanding of the stylistic diversity of the forms of new music that goes beyond learning instrumental/vocal techniques and embraces openness, creativity and flexibility, graduates of the Master's Programme PPCM achieve the ability to combine traditional and contemporary performance practice.

By expanding their repertoire, deepening their knowledge in musical fields and reflecting on artistic or academic aspects, students achieve specialisation and a high level of artistic maturity grounded in critical reflection.

2. Structure

Instrumental Studies at KUG are offered as a bachelor's programme and a subsequent master's programme for the following instruments:

- Accordion
- Bass tuba
- Bassoon
- Flute
- Guitar
- Harp
- French Horn
- Clarinet
- Piano
- Double bass
- Oboe
- Organ
- Trombone
- Saxophone
- Percussion
- Trumpet
- Viola
- Violin
- Cello

In addition, the following master's programmes are offered:

- Instrumental Coaching
- Chamber Music for Guitar
- Chamber Music for Strings and Piano
- Piano Duo
- Piano – Vocal Accompaniment
- Performance Practice in Contemporary Music

3. Duration and academic degree

A bachelor's programme is worth 240 EC (8 semesters) and a master's programme is worth 120 EC (4 semesters).

The bachelor's programme concludes with the conferment of the title Bachelor of Arts (BA) and the master's programme concludes with the conferment of the title Master of Arts (MA).

4. Admission examinations

For admission to the bachelor's programme, students must successfully pass an admission examination, during which evidence of their artistic aptitude must be provided.

For admission to a master's programme, students must provide evidence of successful completion of a bachelor's programme or equivalent degree programme in the relevant instrument at KUG or at another recognised postsecondary educational institution in Austria or abroad. Certificates in a language other than German or English must include a certified translation.

For admission to a master's programme (apart from Performance Practice in Contemporary Music), applicants who have not completed the relevant bachelor's programme at KUG must take an admission examination in the relevant major artistic subject (equivalent in difficulty to the corresponding bachelor's final examination). This also applies to graduates of KUG who took their bachelor's examination more than 2 semesters ago.

For admission to the Master's Programmes Instrumental Coaching, Piano Duo or Piano – Vocal Accompaniment, applicants must provide evidence of successful completion of a bachelor's programme or equivalent degree programme in Piano.

For admission to the Master's Programme Chamber Music for Guitar, applicants must provide evidence of successful completion of a bachelor's programme or equivalent degree programme in Guitar or one of the partner instruments (e.g. Flute, Viola, Violin or Cello).

For admission to the Master's Programme Chamber Music for Strings and Piano, applicants must provide evidence of successful completion of a bachelor's programme or equivalent degree programme in Piano, Double Bass, Viola, Violin or Cello.

For admission to the Master's Programme Performance Practice in Contemporary Music, applicants must provide evidence of successful completion of a bachelor's programme or equivalent degree programme in Accordion, Bassoon, Flute, Voice, Harp, French Horn, Clarinet, Piano, Double Bass, Oboe / Cor Anglais, Trombone, Saxophone, Percussion, Trumpet, Viola, Violin or Cello.

For admission to the Master's Programme Performance Practice in Contemporary Music, all applicants must take an admission examination in the relevant instrument or in voice.

5. Proof of knowledge of the German language

- 1) Persons who are not native German speakers must provide evidence during the bachelor's programme of their knowledge of German before registering to continue the study programme in the third semester (level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) descriptions).
- 2) Persons who are not native German speakers and who have not completed the bachelor's programme at KUG must provide evidence during the master's programme of their knowledge of German before registering to continue the study programme in the third semester (level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) descriptions).

- 3) In addition, the language requirements set by the Rectorate by ordinance and corresponding proof thereof must be provided when registering for the admission examination.

6. Types of courses

The “Description of the courses at KUG”, which is published on the KUG homepage, outlines the types of courses in this curriculum.

7. One-to-one lessons in the compulsory subject Piano for joint honours programmes at KUG

For concurrent or non-concurrent joint honours programmes (e.g. Instrumental Studies, IGP, Electrical Engineering and Audio Engineering, Vocal Studies) at KUG, students are entitled to one-to-one lessons in the compulsory subject Piano, but only in the study programme with the higher number of semester hours for this subject.

8. Free electives

The ECTS credits (EC) allocated to the individual courses as defined by the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System can be found in the individual EC tables.

If a course is worth the same number of EC in all KUG curricula in which it is prescribed as a compulsory or elective course, the course will also be worth this number of credits as a free elective. If a course is allocated various numbers of credits, as a free elective it will be worth the minimum number of EC assigned. Courses that are not prescribed as compulsory or elective courses in the KUG curricula are worth 1 EC per semester hour (sem. hr.). For courses at educational institutions other than KUG the following applies: for each completed semester hour (sem. hr.) 1 EC will be awarded (1 sem. hr. corresponds to 1 EC), if no ECs are listed on the course certificate.

9. Semester abroad

Students are advised to complete a semester abroad (preferably in the sixth semester of the bachelor's programme).

10. Study Emphases

A study emphasis must be chosen from the curriculum in the bachelor's programmes and the master's programmes (except Performance Practice in Contemporary Music).

Additional Courses in study emphasis Musicology:

The study emphasis is worth 4 sem. hrs. / 6 EC in the bachelor's programme and 6 sem. hrs. / 8 EC in the master's programme.

For the Additional Courses in study emphasis Musicology, students can choose from any of the courses from the interuniversity musicology study programme at KUG or other musicology courses from the VO, VU or SE courses offered at KUG.

Exceptions to this are courses that are compulsory subjects or electives of the Instrumental Studies curriculum.

Study emphasis Music Mediation:

The study emphasis Music Mediation can only be chosen in the master's programmes.

In order to complete an artistic mediating master's thesis, the study emphasis Music Mediation must be completed.

In the study emphasis Music Mediation, the following courses must be completed:

Courses	Course type	Sem. hrs.	EC
Compulsory courses		3	4
Introduction to Music Mediation	VU	1	1
Supervised Practical Project*	PT	2	3
Elective courses
One course in Artistic Self-Expression		1	1
Dance and Movement	UE	1	1
Drama Training for students in all fields of studies	UE	1	1
Creative Writing	UE	1	1
Audio-Visual Media and Fine Art	UE	1	1
Two courses in Applied Music Mediation		2	3
Research and Workshop Organisation in Social Fields	PR	1	1.5
Organising Introductory Workshops	PR	1	1.5
Organising Pre-Concert Talks	PR	1	1.5
Organising Children's Concerts	PR	1	1.5
Designing Programmes and Programme Notes	VU	1	1.5
Stage Presence Training, Moderation and Presentation	UE	1	1.5
New Concert Formats	VU	1	1.5
Art and Society	VU	1	1.5
Total		6	8

* The Supervised Practical Project course can only be taken after the completion of Introduction to Music Mediation and the elective courses.

Study emphasis Jazz und Popular Music:

This emphasis can only be chosen for the Bachelor's as well as Master's Programme Accordion.

Students must take an orientation examination for admission to the study emphasis Jazz and Popular Music.

The examination requirements are:

- performance of three to four easy pieces in various styles of jazz and popular music (e.g. Billie's Bounce, Blue Bossa, Watermelon Man, Autumn Leaves, etc.) with the following structure: subject – improvisation – subject (a band will be available for accompaniment if desired);
- spontaneous improvisation on the “blues scale” with free choice of accompaniment style and tonality;
- test of ability to reproduce simple musical phrases with the instrument and the voice.

11. Bachelor's theses

For the bachelor's programme, two bachelor's theses must be prepared, one of which can be an artistic bachelor's thesis in the major artistic subject or in one of the artistic study emphases. The other must be an academic bachelor's thesis, which can be written in any course from the compulsory, elective or study emphasis subjects. Students may also write two academic theses.

Completion of Basic Principles of Academic Research and Techniques of Primary Research is a prerequisite for writing the bachelor's theses.

When composing the bachelor's thesis, please comply with the “KUG guidelines for written theses”, as amended.

12. Master's thesis

Preparation of an artistic-academic master's thesis (lecture recital) or an artistic-mediating master's thesis during the master's programme is recommended. Students are entitled to prepare an academic master's thesis instead.

When composing the master's thesis, please comply with the “KUG guidelines for written theses”, as amended.

For information about the requirements, approval, process and supervision of master's theses, please refer to the relevant provisions in the KUG statutes, as amended.

The master's thesis may be prepared in English (other languages may only be chosen subject to the approval of the Vice Rector for Academic Affairs).

The master's thesis is assessed separately to the final examinations in the major artistic subject.

Students who did not complete their bachelor's programme at KUG are advised to take Basic Principles of Academic Research and Techniques of Primary Research in preparation for writing the master's thesis.

A ARTISTIC MASTER'S THESIS

A.1 Artistic-academic master's thesis

1. The master's thesis should be planned during the first year of study. Two supervisors (artistic and academic) must be chosen. (Note: The artistic supervisor can be someone other than the teacher in the major artistic subject.)
2. The course Seminar for Artistic Master's Thesis and the course Presentation Training for Artistic Master's Theses must be successfully completed as compulsory subjects.
3. The public presentation of the artistic-academic master's thesis must be based on an independently planned programme (in addition to the final examination in the major artistic subject). The focus is on the comprehension and consideration of artistic and research aspects relating to the works.
The presentation may involve other persons and non-university projects.
4. A topic for a written paper (academic element) relating to the presentation must be agreed with the academic supervisor and the artistic supervisor (between 15 and 25 pages, not including the musical examples and bibliography).
5. The academic supervisor is responsible for supervising the written paper. The paper must be written in academic style, i.e. literature used, sources for musical material, recordings, etc. must be listed in accordance with the "KUG guidelines for written theses".
The artistic supervisor has overall responsibility, including for incorporation of the academic element (thematic comprehension and consideration) into the presentation.
6. Both supervisors decide whether the candidate will be admitted to the presentation (confirmation of eligibility).
7. The overall concept – consisting of the artistic exploration of the topic, the artistic presentation and the academic reflection – must be presented publicly. The public presentation lasts approximately 45 minutes (30 minute presentation, plus 15 minutes of reflection/questions). It takes place before the artistic examination board and the supervising researcher and is assessed in accordance with the rules for final examinations. If the artistic supervisor and/or the academic supervisor are not part of the examination board, they will be included on the examination board. KUG will be responsible for recording the presentation of the artistic-academic master's thesis in video/audio format. This recording will be archived with the written paper.
8. The examination board, including the academic supervisor and the artistic supervisor, will make a decision regarding the examination result.
Both the written paper and the presentation will be assessed.

A.2 Artistic mediating master's thesis

1. The master's thesis should be planned during the first year of study. Two supervisors (artistic and artistic mediating) must be chosen.
(Note: The artistic supervisor can be someone other than the teacher in the major artistic subject.)
2. To complete an artistic mediating master's thesis in Instrumental Studies (except PPCM), the student must choose the study emphasis Music Mediation and successfully complete the course Seminar for Artistic Master's Thesis and the course Presentation Training for Artistic Master's Theses as compulsory subjects.
PPCM: To conclude an artistic mediating master's thesis, students must complete electives worth 4 EC from the study emphasis Music Mediation (see paragraph 10 of the curriculum). Participation in Introduction to Music Mediation is compulsory.
The course Seminar for Artistic Master's Thesis and course Presentation Training for Artistic Master's Theses must be successfully completed as compulsory subjects.
3. The public presentation of the artistic mediating master's thesis must be based on an independently planned programme (in addition to the final examination in the major artistic subject). The focus is on thematic implementation of aspects of music mediation. The presentation may involve other persons and non-university projects.
The artistic mediating supervisor is responsible for the overall preparation, preparation of the written concept and implementation of the artistic mediating presentation.
4. Submission of a written concept (at least 10 pages, e.g. programme booklet, documentation of objectives and outcomes, production concept) and confirmation of eligibility by the supervising teachers are prerequisites for admission to the presentation of the artistic mediating master's thesis.
5. The public presentation lasts approximately 45 minutes (30 minute presentation, plus 15 minutes of reflection/questions). It takes place before the artistic examination board and the artistic mediating supervisor and is assessed in accordance with the rules for final examinations. If the artistic supervisor and/or the artistic mediating supervisor are not part of the examination board, they will be included on the examination board. KUG will be responsible for recording the presentation of the artistic mediating master's thesis in video/audio format. This recording will be archived with the written concept.
6. The examination board, including the artistic mediating supervisor, will make a decision regarding the examination result. Both the written concept and the presentation will be assessed.

B ACADEMIC MASTER'S THESIS

1. An academic master's thesis must be written on a topic from the compulsory subjects, electives or study emphases on the curriculum.
2. Students are advised to plan the master's thesis, choose an academic supervisor and decide a topic together in their first year of study.
3. The Seminar for Academic Master's Thesis course must be successfully completed with the supervisor of the academic master's thesis as one of the compulsory subjects and a seminar on Historical Musicology or Music Theory worth 2 sem. hrs. must be successfully completed as one of the electives.
4. The academic supervisor is responsible for assessing the academic master's thesis.

13. Completing the study programme

A) BACHELOR'S PROGRAMME

- (1) The prerequisites for registering for the bachelor's degree examination are:
  - sitting all course examinations from all courses to be completed for the bachelor's programme;
  - positive assessment of both bachelor's theses.In accordance with § 67 of the university statutes, a student may be admitted to the examination conditionally when the individual prerequisites have not been met at the time the student registers for the examination. In this case, evidence that all criteria have been met must be provided no later than ten days before the first part of the examination.
- (2) The bachelor's degree examination is an examination in front of an examination board in the major artistic subject (for examination requirements see paragraph 19).
- (3) If the student does not pass the final examination in the major artistic subject, the examination board will decide after the examination whether the student is allowed to resubmit any parts of the programme when repeating the examination.
The student may be consulted if s/he desires.

B) MASTER'S PROGRAMME

- (1) The prerequisites for registering for the master's degree examination are:
  - sitting all course examinations from all courses to be completed for the master's programme;
  - positive assessment of the academic master's thesis and/or confirmation of eligibility for the artistic-academic / artistic mediating master's thesis.

In accordance with § 67 of the university statutes, a student may be admitted to the examination conditionally when the individual prerequisites have not been met at the time the student registers for the examination. In this case, evidence that all criteria have been met must be provided no later than ten days before the first part of the examination.

- (2) The master's degree examination is an examination in front of an examination board in the major artistic subject (for examination requirements see paragraph 19).
- (3) If the student does not pass the final examination in the major artistic subject, the examination board will decide after the examination whether the student is allowed to resubmit any parts of the programme when repeating the examination.
The student may be consulted if she/he desires.

14. Instrumental Coaching

For each semester (except repeated semesters), in which students register for the major artistic subject, they are entitled to instrumental coaching as follows (solo instrumental coaching, class instrumental coaching):

Bachelor's programme:

INSTRUMENT	Sem. hrs.
	Sem. 1	Sem. 2	Sem. 3	Sem. 4	Sem. 5	Sem. 6	Sem. 7	Sem. 8
Guitar	-	-	-	-	-	-	0.5	1
Orchestral instruments except strings/percussion	0.5	0.5	0.5	1	1	1	1	1
Strings	0.8	0.8	0.8	1.3	1.3	1.3	1.3	1.3
Percussion	-	-	-	-	-	-	1	1

Master's programme:

INSTRUMENT	Sem. hrs.
	Semester 1	Semester 2	Semester 3	Semester 4
Accordion	A maximum of 2 sem. hrs. may be completed.
Guitar	-	-	1	1
Piano	A maximum of 2 sem. hrs. may be completed.
Orchestral instruments except strings/percussion	1	1	1	1
Percussion	-	-	1	1

When repeating semesters in the master's programme, students are entitled to instrumental coaching equivalent to the entitlement for the semester level being repeated for one repeated semester (or for the Master's Programmes Accordion and Piano, a total of 0.5 semester hours).

15. Group sizes

The following maximum numbers of participants for group sizes apply for the courses below:

Course	Students	Course type
Audio-Visual Media and Fine Art	15	UE
Sight-Reading 1-2	2	UE

16. Compulsory orchestra

Orchestra is a group lesson where 100% attendance is compulsory.

1. Bachelor's programme:

In a bachelor's programme that includes the compulsory subject Orchestra (see paragraph 18 of the curriculum), a total of at least 24 EC of Orchestra courses must be demonstrated. Orchestra is compulsory for bachelor's programme students starting no later than the third semester (PLEASE NOTE: shortened registration period; registration via KUGonline). It is advisable to complete Orchestra courses starting from the second semester (or from the first semester if eligible – this is at the discretion of the teacher of the major artistic subject and the leader of the orchestra).

From the fourth semester, completed Orchestra courses worth the following are a prerequisite for registration for the major artistic subject:

Semester 4	Semester 5	Semester 6	Semester 7
minimum of 4 EC	minimum of 8 EC	minimum of 12 EC	minimum of 16 EC

2. Master's programme:

In a master's programme that includes the compulsory subject Orchestra (see paragraph 18 of the curriculum), a total of at least 8 EC of Orchestra courses must be demonstrated.

Orchestra is compulsory for master's programme students starting no later than the third semester (PLEASE NOTE: shortened registration period; registration via KUGonline). It is advisable to complete Orchestra courses starting in the second semester.

A minimum of 4 EC in Orchestra is a prerequisite for registration for the major artistic subject in the fourth semester.

17. Transition provisions

a) General transition provisions

Students who started their bachelor's programme before or during the academic year 2018/19 are entitled to complete their study programme according to the provisions of the 2018/19 curriculum (version 14U) up to the end of the winter semester 2023/24 (cut-off date 30 April 2024).

Students who started their master's programme before or during the academic year 2018/19 are entitled to complete their study programme according to the provisions of the 2018/19 curriculum (version 14U) up to the end of the winter semester 2021/22 (cut-off date 30 April 2022).

If the study programme is not completed by then, students must adopt the current curriculum. Students are entitled to transition to this curriculum at an earlier date.

Academic achievements up to that point will be recognised, providing they correspond with the current curriculum (version 19U).

b) Equivalences for degree programme version 19 U

The playing time for each part of the examination is 60 minutes in total (1st and 2nd part). The programme must cover at least 3 major stylistic periods and the candidate must be informed of the examination programme 8 weeks before the 1st part of the examination. The candidate is entitled to choose the programme for the 2nd part. The submitted programme should clearly show which works the candidate has chosen for the 2nd part. If the candidate does not wish to choose the programme for the 2nd part, it will be determined by the examination board.

There should be a period of at least 2 hours between the two parts of the examination.

First part

Repertoire examination

The candidate starts with a work of his/her own choice from the set examination programme. The subsequent sequence of pieces to be performed is decided by the examination board (in particular, stylistic periods that have not been included in the programme for the 2nd part).

Passing the 1st part is a prerequisite for admission to the 2nd part.

Second part

Public concert

The programme for the 2nd part must include a complete work (which was not played in the 1st part).

Works with 3 or more players may only make up a maximum of half of the total programme (1st and 2nd part).

The candidate performs the programme he/she has put together under concert conditions. This means in particular that the examination board will not intervene during the performance.

Final examinations in the major artistic subjects

Students are advised to come up with several proposals for the artistic tasks in the final examination, in consultation with the teacher who taught them in the major artistic subject during the 2nd successfully completed semester.

The programme to be submitted must be two concert programmes in length (approximately 180 minutes), and include at least 3 solo works, 3 chamber music works and 3 ensemble works.

The examination board must determine the examination programme with a playing time of 50-60 minutes and inform the candidate 8 weeks before the examination.

The examination programme for the 1st part comprises:

One large work from contemporary solo repertoire

2 chamber music works from contemporary chamber music repertoire

The programme for the 2nd part comprises one to two contemporary works for ensemble and is performed under concert conditions.

There should be a period of at least 2 weeks between the two parts of the examination.

INSTRUMENTAL STUDIES

PERFORMANCE PRACTICE IN CONTEMPORARY MUSIC (PPCM) – VOCAL

General Information

Students who wish to apply for this master's programme must have the following artistic attributes.

- Curiosity: to develop themselves as creative artists within and beyond existing career profiles.
- Enthusiasm: for contemporary music and opera.
- Courage: to explore unfamiliar territory.
- Willingness: to participate in the development of contemporary music.
- Pushing the boundaries: of expressivity and intimacy, willingness to cross aesthetic boundaries.
- Performative expression capabilities.
- Interest: in other art forms and interdisciplinary projects.
- Classical vocal training: advanced vocal skills, flexibility in vocal dynamics, range and timbre.

Admission examination

The candidate should submit the following programme<sup>1</sup>.

1. Two songs or arias from the Baroque, Classical or Romantic repertoire.
2. An atonal vocal work from classical 20th-century music (e.g. Second Viennese School).
3. A vocal work with extended techniques (e.g. Aperghis).
4. A performative vocal work based on graphical notation (e.g. Berio, Sequenza III; Haubenstock-Ramati) or performance instructions (e.g. Cage Songbook) or candidate's own performative composition/improvisation. Here the focus is on individual, creative design.

The recital must be performed from memory. Complex works may be sung with music. In the latter case, the sheet music must be sent to the Director of the Institute for Vocal Studies immediately on registration for the admission examination. The candidate must provide copies of sheet music for the works from programme points 2, 3 and 4. If the candidate wishes to use an accompanist from KUG for the examination, all music must be sent to the office of the Institute for Vocal Studies (Institute 7) immediately on registration.

<sup>1</sup> The programme for the admission examination does not have to be focused on a particular period in "contemporary" music history. Rather, it should reflect the relevant artistic capabilities of the candidate.

- 1: Here the technical vocal and underlying musical abilities can be demonstrated.
- 2: Dealing with atonality
- 3: Distance and independence from classical singing
- 4: Presentation of performative potential

Final examinations in the major artistic subject

Students are advised to come up with several proposals for the artistic tasks in the final examination, in consultation with the teacher who taught them in the major artistic subject during the 2nd successfully completed semester.

The examination consists of two parts: a performative opera part and a concert part.

The performance time for each of the programme parts must be 50-60 minutes and include:

- Works from contemporary solo vocal repertoire post-1945. Pre-1945 works are only permitted with the approval of the examination board and can only make up a maximum of one third of the programme.
- A premiere of a contemporary vocal work.
- At least one work with instrumental ensemble (3 instruments or more).
- An unaccompanied work.
- At least one vocal work in which the student sings together with other singers.

There should be a period of at least two weeks between the two parts of the examination. The members of the examination board are free to ask the candidates questions related to the pieces performed.

The final examinations in the major artistic subject will be considered passed when all parts of major artistic subject have been successfully completed.

First part: opera/performance

The programme for the first part comprises works / extracts from an operatic composition or performative vocal works.

With the approval of the examination board, a work that the candidate sings in a university production or in a prestigious performance can be assessed as part of the final examination. The examination board must be informed in good time and invited to the performance.

Second part: concert/recital

The programme for the second part comprises several works presented as a concert. It is similar in form to a recital.

Bachelor's programme: final examinations in the major artistic subject

The teacher in the major artistic subject whose courses the student attended most recently must notify the candidate, no later than after the 6th successfully completed semester in the major artistic subject, of several proposals for the artistic tasks to be completed as part of the final examination. The candidate is entitled to make his/her own proposals and the teacher in the major artistic subject will make a decision on the suitability of these proposals.

For the examination a programme that contains works from the following genres must be submitted:

- 1) three études equivalent in difficulty to Dont, Gavinies, Paganini, Dancla,
- 2) a work from virtuoso violin repertoire (concert piece, genre piece),
- 3) two sonatas from different stylistic periods,
- 4) a solo sonata or partita by J.S. Bach, of which the examination board will choose 2 movements,
- 5) a major violin concerto and a violin concerto by W.A. Mozart,
- 6) a work composed post-1950,
- 7) four orchestral excerpts, of which the examination board will choose two.

All pieces except the sonatas with piano, the orchestral excerpts and the post-1950 work must be performed from memory.

The examination board must determine the examination programme with a playing time of 45 minutes and inform the candidate 6 weeks before the examination.

Master's programme: final examinations in the major artistic subject

Students are advised to come up with several proposals for the artistic tasks in the final examination, in consultation with the teacher who taught them in the major artistic subject(s) during the 2nd successfully completed semester.

For the examination, a programme that contains works from the following genres must be submitted:

- 1) a work by Paganini and a study equivalent in difficulty to Dont, Wieniawski,
- 2) a work from virtuoso violin repertoire,
- 3) 1st and 2nd movements of a solo sonata or Chaconne from the Partita in D minor,
- 4) a concerto by W.A. Mozart (KV 216, 218, 219) and a major violin concerto,
- 5) two sonatas, including at least one with piano, from different stylistic periods,
- 6) a work composed post-1950,
- 7) five orchestral excerpts, including two solos from a list compiled by the violin teachers (based on audition pieces for professional orchestras), of which the examination board will choose one tutti and one solo excerpt.

All pieces except the sonatas with piano, the orchestral excerpts and the post-1950 work must be performed from memory.

The examination is divided into two parts.

The examination board must determine the examination programme with a playing time of 40 minutes for the 1st part and 60 minutes for the 2nd part and inform the candidate 8 weeks before the first part of the examination.

The examination programme for the 1st part must be determined by the examination board. The candidate is entitled to choose the programme for the 2nd part. The submitted programme should clearly show which works the candidate has chosen for the 2nd part. If the candidate does not wish to choose the programme for the 2nd part, it will be determined by the examination board.

There should be a period of at least 2 weeks between the two parts of the examination.

First part

The candidate performs a work of his/her own choice from the set examination programme. The subsequent sequence of pieces to be performed is decided by the examination board, in particular the choice and performance of the orchestral excerpts. Passing the first part is a prerequisite for admission to the second part.

Second part

The candidate performs the programme he/she has put together under concert conditions. This means in particular that:

1. complete works should be performed.
2. the examination board will not intervene during the performance.
