GRAZ

You are new in the city of Graz and you would like to find your way around quickly and easily here? We have put together some interesting information and links about (social) life in the city to help you get to know your new place of study as well as new people.

SIGHTS & CULTURAL OFFER

Did you know that Graz was not only celebrated in 2003 as Europe's cultural capital, but since 2017 Graz is also "UNESCO City of Design" and is one of the most future-oriented cities in the world?

SIGHTS (examples)

Burg & Doppelwendeltreppe (Burg & Double Spiral Staircase)

Hofgasse 15, 8010 Graz

Short description: The Burg in Graz - former residence of the Habsburg family and today's headquarter of the local Styrian government - has been structurally rebuilt over centuries and combines elements from the Gothic, Renaissance and Biedermeier eras today. A special highlight is the double spiral staircase, which at first glance may look like an optical illusion, as it consists of two opposing stairs that merge briefly on each floor, separate and come together again. The double spiral staircase is also called "reconciliation stairs" and is a true tourist attraction!

Glockenspiel

Glockenspielplatz 4, 8010 Graz

Short description: Three times a day the traditional mechanical "Glockenspiel" sounds at the "Glockenspielplatz". In the house gable a dancing Styrian couple in colourful traditional costumes turns around to three different melodies.

Worth seeing and listening!

More information: <https://bit.ly/2KYUpWV>

Grazer Dom (Graz Cathedral)

Burggasse 3, 8010 Graz

Short description: When it comes to attractions in Graz, you cannot miss the Graz Cathedral - one of the most significant cultural-historical buildings! The cathedral reminds of times when Graz was still an imperial city. Once built by the emperor Friedrich III., the cathedral serves today as the main church of the Catholics in Styria. From the year 1978 comes the organ of the cathedral, which has 5354 pipes and 73 registers and plays at church and organ concerts all pieces. Not far from the Graz Cathedral is also the Institute for Church Music and Organ of the KUG!

More information: <https://bit.ly/2JkYm7O>

Grazer Uhrturm (Clock Tower)

Schlossberg, 8010 Graz

Short description: What must one have necessarily seen in Graz? Correct! The landmark of Graz, namely the clock tower at Schlossberg, not far away from the main square! From here you can catch a stunning view over the red roofs and historic backyards and simply enjoy your day! By the way, in the middle of the rock of the Schlossberg, you can find the event location "Dom im Berg", next to the fairy-tale grotto. Find out more about the clock tower on the following website: <http://bit.ly/2lryYgf>.

If you want to see the "shadow" of the clock tower, which has been created in 2003 when Graz was the "European Capital of Culture", then you have to go to the Grazer outskirts of "Seiersberg".

Kunsthhaus Graz

Lendkai 1, 8020 Graz

Short description: The "Kunsthhaus Graz", also known as the "Friendly Alien", has been floating between the rooftops of the old town since 2003 and is an exhibition center which combines global trends in contemporary art with regional and local activities. But not only the spectacular architecture of the "Kunsthhaus Graz", but in particular various exhibitions, a shop, the Kunsthhauscafé or a media lounge attract visitors from all over the world magically.

More information: <https://bit.ly/2uWNiL8>

Landeszeughaus (Styrian Armoury)

Herrengasse 16, 8010 Graz

Short description: The Styrian Armoury, with its 32.000 exhibits on five floors, is not only an impressive armoury and an interesting museum on the country's history, but also the largest historic armoury in the world.

More information: <https://bit.ly/38uevtc>

Landhaushof (Landhaus Courtyard)

Herrengasse 16, 8010 Graz

Short description: The "Landhaus", which was built in the 16th century for the estates of Styria is today the seat of the Styrian parliament and is one of the most important Renaissance buildings in Central Europe.

In the inviting atmosphere of the courtyard concerts, theater performances and various events take place regularly. While in the summer months flowers adorn the arcades, during the winter months you can marvel at the famous ice crib.

More information: <https://bit.ly/3wYTFf5>

Mausoleum

Burggasse 3, 8010 Graz

Short description: Immediately adjacent to the Graz cathedral the imperial resting place of Emperor Ferdinand II is located - the mausoleum, built in the 17th century, which forms a unit together with the adjoining "Katharinenkirche" and which is one of the most important architectural monuments in Austria. Among other things, together with the Graz cathedral, the building characterizes the cityscape of Graz and is part of what is also known as the "Grazer Stadtkrone".

More information: <https://bit.ly/2KYeH2S>

Murinsel (Island in the Mur)

Lendkai 19, 8020 Graz

Short description: An island in the middle of the city? Graz can offer you also that! In 2003 the "Murinsel" (Island in the Mur) was commissioned as part of the city's role as capital of culture and is now the connection between the city and the river. Not only concerts and cultural evenings take place here, but it is also a wonderful place to enjoy your drink and get to know the city from a different point of view!

More information: <http://murinselgraz.at/en/>

Schloss Eggenberg

Eggenberger Allee 90, 8020 Graz

Short description: The Eggenberg Palace, which has been a UNESCO World Heritage since 2010, and was built in the early 17th century, is located on the outskirts of Graz at the foot of the Plabutsch amid of a wonderful landscape park and it is one of the most important castles in Styria. Valuable collections and interesting exhibitions invite you to visit.

Special Hint from a KUG Student:

I like to go by bike to the basilica in Mariatrost, which by the way is one of the most famous pilgrimage destinations in Styria! Surrounded by greenery, it's a great place to have a picnic and enjoy nature. You can go back then through the Leechwald! Ideal for students, as this is not far from the university!

📌 Special Hint from a KUG Student:

Anyone who has neither time nor money to travel, but still wants to treat themselves to dishes from all over the world, will definitely find something in Graz: From Chinese (e.g. May Kay, Jade), Thai (e.g. Easy Asia, Café Mitte), Vietnamese (e.g. Vina, Mekong), Japanese (e.g. Yamamoto Sushibar) over Indian (e.g. Namaste, Hathi, Ganesha), Polish (e.g. Pierogi) or Persian (e.g. Kolbe) to dishes from the Balkans (e.g. Demiri) and typical Austrian cuisine (e.g. Der Steirer, GösserBräu), vegan food (e.g. Café Erde), snacks (e.g. Feinkost Mild) or when having big hunger, there is something for everyone! And since tastes are known to be different - as well as it is in music - you can also simply cook your favourite dishes yourself: regional foods can be found for example in the farmers' markets, oriental food is available in special shops.

📌 Special Hint from a KUG Student:

In my opinion, Graz offers nightlife options on three levels: for very leisurely for a drink, for a bit longer in restaurants with live music or for partying the night away. For every desired level there is the right bar or event in Graz! KUG students also have the opportunity to perform themselves in some of the venues and to inspire the visitors with their music.

(Kajetan, Jazz & Musicology)

SPORTS & LEISURE

Did you know that in Graz there is the University Sports Institute \(USI\), which offers more than 350 discounted sports courses especially for students, graduates and employees of the Styrian universities?

The city of Graz offers numerous opportunities to do sports and to fill your leisure time with new and exciting experiences. From various bathing facilities, a well-developed bicycle infrastructure, some climbing opportunities, running tracks along the Mur over to ice skating opportunities there is something for everyone!

📌 Special Hint from a KUG Student:

If you like being in nature, I recommend the local mountain of Graz, the so-called "Schöckl"! In summer you can hike here and enjoy your leisure time, in winter the cable car leads upwards. As soon as you arrive at the top you can enjoy delicious Austrian food as well as a great view over the city of Graz!

In addition to sporting activities and events the city of Graz furthermore offers other leisure activities, such as the following:

- Christmas Markets in Graz
- Cinemas

More leisure opportunities can be found in the next section!

RECREATION & RELAXATION

Did you know that in Graz green areas such as parks and private gardens occupy about 70 percent of the city area?

Those who learn and practice a lot also need time to relax and unwind! Graz offers many places where this is possible!

- Augarten

Augartenallee, 8010 Graz

If you are looking for recreation in the spacious park “Augarten”, you can combine your visit with a trip to the “Augartenbad” (swimming baths), which is also very close to the river Mur and the Murradweg (cycling route).

- Botanical Garden

Holteigasse 6, 8010 Graz

In the Botanical Garden of the Institute of botany, three climatic zones and diverse exotic as well as well-known plants invite you to linger.

- Burggarten

Hofgasse 15, 8010 Graz

Almost hidden is the small but beautiful Burggarten, whose highlight is the former Orangerie, which is often the venue for various events.

- Hilmteich

Hilmteichstraße 70, 8010 Graz

On the edge of the forest “Leechwald” you can find the pond “Hilmteich”, which invites you to hiking, climbing, walking, picnicking and boating, while in winter you can even go ice skating there.

- kunstGarten (art garden)

Payer Weyprecht Straße 27, 8020 Graz

Since 2004 the kunstGarten has offered space for various exhibitions, lectures, readings and concerts, combining nature with contemporary arts.

- Schlossberg

Am Schlossberg, 8010 Graz

If you want to get up to the Schlossberg in Graz, you can do so on foot as well as by means of the “Schlossbergbahn” (Schlossberg funicular or also by the “Schlossberglift”), which already offers a first wonderful view over the city. As an important center of the old town of Graz, the Schlossberg is part of the UNESCO world heritage and offers culinary delights in its various restaurants. Furthermore, you can find there the casemates, the Turkish fountain, remains of the castle as well as various art objects and the new slide.

- Schloss Eggenberg

Eggenberger Allee 90, 8020 Graz

The Schloss Eggenberg, built in the early 17th century, is surrounded by an inviting landscape and is embedded in the castle park as well as in various appealing gardens, such as the planet garden or the “Herrschaftsgartel”, which invite you to linger.

- Stadtpark

Stadtpark 1, 8010 Graz

The “green heart” of the city, the Graz city park, is also an UNESCO world heritage Site. Here e.g. you can watch the wonderful squirrels, the so-called “Hansis”!

- Rosenhain

Aigner-Rollett-Allee, Max-Mell-Allee

The Rosenhain, which is a popular excursion and hiking destination, offers optimal leisure opportunities in a quiet environment with a beautiful view of the city of Graz. Here you will also find the University Sports Institute (“USI”) and the café Rosenhain. The forest invites you for a walk and on foot you will quickly be back in the university district.

- Citybeach

Erzherzog Johann Brücke, 8010 Graz

On the city beach of Graz you can really enjoy the summer with a cool drink, music, live performances and DJ LineUps.

- Murpromenade Graz-Süd

Murfelderstraße (Liebenau), 8041 Graz

In the south of Graz you can enjoy a 1.2 km long promenade on the Mur. Here you can discover a lot: viewing- and river decks, a boat harbour, a biotope as well as the natural shore design of the riverbank.

- Hiking options in Graz:

- Arnold-Schwarzenegger-Hiking-Trail
- Rettenbachklamm – Platte
- Gösting Castle Ruins
- Jakobsleiter Reinerkogel
- Schöckl
- Thalersee
- Round walk St. Martin –Straßgang
- etc.

Further information can be found here:

<https://www.graztourismus.at/en/see-and-do/sightseeing/parks-gardens>

📌 Special Hint from a KUG Student:

If you want to relax in nature and do not want to leave Graz, you can visit the Hilmteich. It is located near the University of Graz and the botanical garden and can be easily reached by bike, tram or on foot. From late spring to autumn, the benches are ideal places to read or simply the starting point for a hike through the forest. In winter, as soon as the ice is thick enough, you can even skate on the water.

(José Luis, Composition and Music Theory)

Leisure activities around the city of Graz

Of course, there is also a lot to discover out of town. Due to the optimal location of Graz, you can reach the wonderful south and east of Styria quickly, for example:

- Zotter chocolate manufacturer (Bergl 56, 8333 Riegersburg)
- Austrian Sculpture Park (Thalerhofstraße 85, 8141 Premstätten)
- Sulmsee (Seggauberg 184, 8430 Leibnitz)

OBERSCHÜTZEN

You are new in Oberschützen and would like to find your way around quickly and easily here? We have put together some interesting information and links about (social) life in the region to help you get to know your new place of study as well as new people.

Did you know that Oberschützen is said to be the largest “school city” of Europe due to its outstanding educational offer consisting of the University of Music and Performing Arts Graz, two high schools, the student dormitory, the secondary school, the elementary schools, the day nursery / kindergarten and the music school?

SIGHTS & CULTURAL OFFER

Sights (examples)

Anschlussdenkmal Oberschützen

Sonnleitenweg 2, 7432 Oberschützen

The “Anschlussdenkmal” is the largest National Socialist monument in Austria and was declared in 1997 by a plaque to a memorial to peace and respect for human rights.

Haus der Volkskultur (House of Folk Culture)

Hauptstraße 25, 7432 Oberschützen

The House of Folk Culture sees itself as a dialect institute and competence center for Burgenland folk culture and also houses the “Burgenländische Volksliedwerk” and the “Museumsverein Oberschützen”.

Volksliedwerk

Hauptstraße 25, 7432 Oberschützen

The “Volksliedwerk” is dedicated to the research of folk music and its promotion and makes interested collections available. It also collaborates with schools and institutions and organizes various events.

Esterházy Palace (further away!)

Esterházyplatz 5, 7000 Eisenstadt

Esterházy Palace is located in Eisenstadt and is considered one of the most beautiful baroque castles in the country. The castle is due to the numerous concerts, festivals and exhibitions a center of cultural events.

Castle Schlaining

Rochusplatz 1, 7461 Stadtschlaining

The castle Schlaining is a medieval castle. Since the year 2000, a peace museum is located here. On a regular basis here is a cultural offer such as exhibitions and guided tours.

Kulturzentrum Oberschützen (Culture Center)

Hauptplatz 8, 7432 Oberschützen

The culture center Oberschützen, which is located in the immediate vicinity of the institute Oberschützen of the University of Music and Performing Arts Graz, is offering space (e.g. with the Jenő Takács hall with its gallery and an organ as well as the chamber music hall) since 1982. There is also an exhibition gallery for fine arts and a photo and exhibition area for numerous cultural events.

Branch Library “Pannonische Forschungsstelle”

Hauptplatz 8, 7432 Oberschützen

The branch library is a specialized library for wind music research. In addition to around 1000 specialist books and a comprehensive collection of international wind music magazines, the collection focus is on historical sheet music, partly from abandoned music archives with much handwritten material, as well as on the latest issues of wind orchestra literature, mostly in directional voice editions.
